Columbia, TN: The Maury County Democratic Party, the Williamson County Democratic Party, and the Dr. Jason Martin for Tennessee campaign are planning a joint rally in Spring Hill on Saturday, November 5. The rally will begin at 5 p.m. and will be located at the Dogwood Shelter at Fischer Park (4285 Port Royal Road).

About the Maury County Democratic Party: The Maury County Democratic Party is the local county affiliate of the Tennessee Democratic Party and represents the interests of tens of thousands of Democratic-leaning voters in the county.

About the Williamson County Democratic Party: The Williamson County Democratic Party is the Williamson County affiliate of the Tennessee Democratic Party. The current chair is Dr. Jenn Foley, of Spring Hill.

About Dr. Jason Brantley Martin: Dr. Martin is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Tennessee. He is a father, doctor, and business owner. Dr. Martin believes we should be working for Tennesseans where they are most vulnerable. When Metro Nashville tried to close Nashville's public hospital, he stood up and fought to keep Nashville General. Then, the COVID-19 pandemic exposed and exacerbated the inequities in our state and incompetence of Tennessee's leadership. Dr. Martin was the lead physician calling for accountability from Governor Bill Lee. He has been endorsed by the AFL-CIO and the Tennessee Education Association.

About Jameson Manor: Jameson Manor is a teacher and coach who lives in Spring Hill and is the Democratic nominee for state representative in District 64 (eastern Maury County).

About Angie Hughes: Angie Hughes is a UAW and USPS retiree who lives in Cornersville and is the Democratic nominee for state representative in District 92 (Marshall County and Williamson County portion of Spring Hill).
