FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 02/07/2023

Democrats to Hold County Party Convention on March 11

Columbia, TN: The Maury County Democratic Party (MCDP) will be holding its biennial reorganization convention on Saturday, March 11 at the Maury County Senior Citizen Center (1020 Maury County Park Dr., in Columbia). New officers will be elected, and new bylaws will be discussed at this convention.

All Maury County registered voters who are Democrats are eligible to participate in the convention. Party volunteers will check the voter registration and voting history of attendees to ensure the eligibility of participants. Others (non-residents, non-voters and non-Democrats, including members of the press) may attend as non-participating guests.

The Democratic Party does not charge dues and includes any voter who has voted in recent Democratic Party primaries or identifies with the party's values as members.

Doors will open at 9 a.m., and attendees must be in line by 9:45 a.m. to participate in the convention. The convention program will start at 10 a.m. and should take about two hours to complete. Light refreshments will be provided.

The last county party convention was held in August 2021, which was delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Conventions are normally held in the spring of odd year.

Democrats will pick a county chair, three vice-chairs, a secretary, and a treasurer; the party will also select two district representatives from each of Maury County's 11 county commission districts to serve on the county party's executive committee.

MCDP Chair James Dallas: "We look forward to meeting our Democratic friends and neighbors and discussing the future of our party in Maury County. We hope that this event will encourage and energize Democrats as we prepare for the 2024 election cycle."

Chair Dallas encourages Democrats to RSVP and pre-register for the event online. Links to the Facebook Event page and the pre-registration form are available on the MCDP website, www.maurydems.org.

About the Maury County Democratic Party: The Maury County Democratic Party is the local county affiliate of the Tennessee Democratic Party and represents the interests of tens of thousands of Democratic-leaning voters in the county.
