Kathy Hannen

Life of the Party

Kathy Hannen has always been “The Life of the Party.” Kathy spent most of her life in the Midwest until she moved with her husband Tom to Maury County almost 20 years ago. She is a true daughter of Northeastern Ohio—where her family lived for generations.

Never one to sit still and watch from the sidelines, Kathy has always been deeply involved with her community. She began her community involvement at age 10 when she volunteered at a local community center to help with the younger children. After graduating from Bowling Green State University, Kathy worked as a geriatric social worker until she retired from that profession to raise her family—and began a lifetime of community involvement and volunteering.

While always politically active, Kathy made a memorable trip with her daughter to the 1989 March for Women’s Rights and Lives in Washington, D.C. After moving to Columbia, Kathy became a fixture with the Maury County Democratic Party and the Maury County Women Democrats. Her ability to connect with people from all walks of life, coupled with her unwavering commitment to Democratic values is why she is so active within the Party.

Dr. Christa Martin

H.O. Porter Educator of the Year

Dr. Christa Secrest Martin is Executive Director to the President for the Office of Belonging & Student Resources at Columbia State Community College. She has worked at the College since 1979 in these roles: programmer analyst, assistant director, and Director of Computer Services. Her first job after her four-year degree was as a Computer Programmer/Operator for Associated Water/Air Resource Engineers in Franklin, from 1977 through 1979.

Christa’s degrees include a Doctor of Education (Ed.D) from Nova Southeastern University (2012); a Master of Science from MTSU (1988), a Bachelor of Business Administration from MTSU (1976) and an Associate of Applied Science in Computer Science from CSCC (1975). She graduated from Columbia Central High School in 1973. She was appointed by Mayor Barbara McIntyre to the Columbia City Council for the Third Ward in 1992 and served for 22 years. She was sworn in as the first African American Vice Mayor of Columbia in 2015 and served eight years until her retirement in 2022. Christa is a member of New Smyrna Cumberland Presbyterian Church in America, and serves as an ordained elder. Dr. Martin is a native of Maury County and has been married to Williard F. (DD) Martin for over 45 years. They have two adult children, Jyuana and Karlston (husband of Mrs. Ebony Martin); two grandchildren, Elijah and Kameron; and two god-granddaughters, Nevaeh and Tamaria. Her parents are the late Ernest Secrest & Ruthie Mae Thornton Secrest. She has four brothers (one deceased) and two sisters.

DRAKE COLLEY

Jerry and Linda Colley True Democrat

Drake Colley was born and raised in Columbia, Tenn. He attended Spring Hill Elementary, where admittedly his public education teachers were his most beloved mentors at an early age. After elementary school, he attended Columbia Military Academy and Battle Ground Academy, and graduated from Columbia Central High School in 1981. He attended the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa where he was a member and Rush Chairman for Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, serving as Rush Chairman.

Upon his return to Columbia after college, Drake became a licensed real estate agent with Coldwell Banker. During this time he became part owner and subsequently sole owner of Crown Liquors in Columbia. Determination and hard work made his business thrive for 29 years until his retirement in 2017.

Having been raised by his father Jerry, a man of unmatched integrity, Drake saw firsthand the importance of equality, empathy, and fairness. These beliefs, which were instilled in him from a young age, led Drake to create and name the local radio show "Three Dudes With A View" when the nation's political climate became polluted with far-right extremism and conspiracy theories. A self-proclaimed sports aficionado, Drake is currently the host of his own sports show called "The Front Porch Sports Radio Hour" which airs Monday, Thursday, and Friday on local radio 101.7 FM. Drake has had a long-standing involvement with area youth and served as a TSSAA high school referee for 30 years. He has also spearheaded monetary drives for the Maury County Christmas program "Shop With A Cop" for local underprivileged children.

Drake is married to his wife Susan and together they have four children, two grandsons, and a miniature dachshund named Karl. He is an avid fan of horse racing, SEC football and Las Vegas.

DJ Campos

Ty Cobb Young Democrat

My name is DJ Campos, and I have had the privilege of growing up here in Columbia my entire life. My journey has been shaped significantly by the confidence and optimism instilled in me by my parents, Dennis and Laura Campos. During my high school years, I had the honor of being a Graduate of the Governor's School of International Studies, serving as Vice Chair of the Mayor's Youth Council, President of Central's Interact Club, Co-Captain for Central's Color Guard Team, and founding Central's Civic Engagement Club.

This past year, I completed my freshman year at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. I have been an active member of the Baker Center for Public Policy's inaugural Living Learning Community, this program allowed me to immerse myself in various courses before the school officially opened to the public. I also participated in the Student Success Academy Cohort, a program originally designed to support Black and Hispanic students in connecting and thriving on campus. Through my involvement with the First Year Leadership Council, I worked alongside 60 other freshmen to deepen our own understanding and the rest of our class on UT's Student Government Association. Academically, I have challenged myself with a diverse range of classes, leading me to decide on a Journalism major with double minors in Public Relations and Public Affairs. My passion for these fields has grown through my work with the school newspaper, "The Daily Beacon," and the feminist magazine, "Ablaze." The Maury County Democratic Party has been instrumental in reinforcing my appreciation for the community and passion here in Columbia, and I am incredibly grateful to be honored at this dinner among such influential and supportive individuals.

MAURY COUNTY DEMOCRATIC WOMEN

CONGRATULATIONS KATHY HANNEN

You've always been the life of the party. We're so proud of you and love you!

Maury County Democratic Party

2023–2025 Officers

James Dallas - Chair

James Dallas (he/his or they/them) is a descendant of seven generations of Tennesseans. Born in Memphis in 1982, James spent most of his childhood in five other states. He earned a B.A in Government from the University of Texas at Austin (the “wrong U.T.” according to family) in 2003, and a J.D. from the University of Houston in 2007. He practiced law before moving into the Information Technology field. James moved to Columbia in 2018 and now works for Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He has been active in Democratic politics for 22 years. He is an LGBTQ activist, “Navy brat”, Kiwanian, church volunteer, and a lover of dogs, history, and gardening. He was recently elected to a second term as Chair and is the TDCCA 5th District Chair.

Vicki Hale - 1st Vice Chair

Vicki has been a part of the UAW-GM family since 1985. She began her career at the Wentzville assembly plant then transferred to Spring Hill three years later. During her tenure in Spring Hill, she held many local union executive board positions and standing committee chairmanships. Vicki has 37 years of service in union activism and has served on elected Executive Board and Regional Board positions for 25 years. She served as president of the UAW Local 31, Region 5 from 2014-2017. She is currently a member of the Tennessee Democratic Party’s state executive committee. Vicki currently resides in Columbia with her husband. Their son, Clayton, graduated last month from the University of Charleston.

Michael White - 2nd Vice Chair

Michael White grew up in Columbia and is a 1987 graduate of Central High School. Following graduation, Michael moved to Murfreesboro to attend MTSU. Inspired by Democratic candidates and concerned by those on the other side of the aisle, Michael joined the Rutherford County Democratic Party in 2016 and immediately went to work supporting local candidates. In 2018, Michael served as a key volunteer and supporter for the Mariah Phillips and the A.J. Holmes campaigns. Frequent visits to his hometown in support of these campaigns inspired him to return to Maury County in 2019. Outside of his work as an optician and his political activity, Michael loves cooking, music, and traveling the world.

Claudia Hoenicke - 3rd Vice Chair

Claudia H. Hoenicke is a life-long Democrat, a member of the Maury County Democratic Party and the Maury County Democratic Women. She is also a new member in the Columbia Lions Club, looking forward to working in the community. As a scuba diver, one of her interests is in spreading Ocean Awareness, particularly with regard to the effects of climate change and pollution. She is retired and does “whatever I want, when I want.”

Denise Durica - Secretary

Denise grew up in Anaheim, California and moved to Columbia in 2019; however, her Maury County roots go back six generations to 1812 and when her 4th great-grandfather settled here. She has worked as a legal assistant for more than 20 years. She has been involved in Democratic Party politics since she was in college in San Diego. Denise is married and has three grown children. The youngest, Evan, is a 2023 graduate of Central High School and currently a student at Columbia State. Her interests include researching her family history and exploring Middle Tennessee. Denise is a devoted fan of the Seattle Seahawks.

Thomas “Hodge” Cook - Treasurer

Hodge Cook has lived in Maury County since 1976. He graduated from Columbia Central High School and Columbia State Community College. Many people know Hodge for being a musician and playing in different events in Middle Tennessee. You can often find him at Variety Records on First Fridays. He is most proud of his wife and his three children. His hobbies include song-writing, reading, and Titans and UT football. He is honored to be a part of the Maury County Democratic Party.

"Best wishes to the Maury County Democratic Party Heritage Day Dinner, and thank you for your ongoing support!"

Maryam Abolfazli, a proud Nashville native, is deeply committed to community and civic engagement. With a background in global democracy work, she champions women's health and autonomy, prioritizing the safety of children, and fighting for economic security for working families in Tennessee.

As a single mother, Maryam's dedication to motherhood propels her advocacy. Her journey into parenthood has strengthened her resolve to create a safer, fairer environment for her son and all Tennessee families. Now, she's stepping up to represent Tennessee's Congressional District 5, fueled by her passion for local issues and her genuine desire to serve her community.

IN MEMORIAL

The following section honors individuals who with their leadership, their way of life, and their commitment to family have made the Democratic Party and their country a better place.

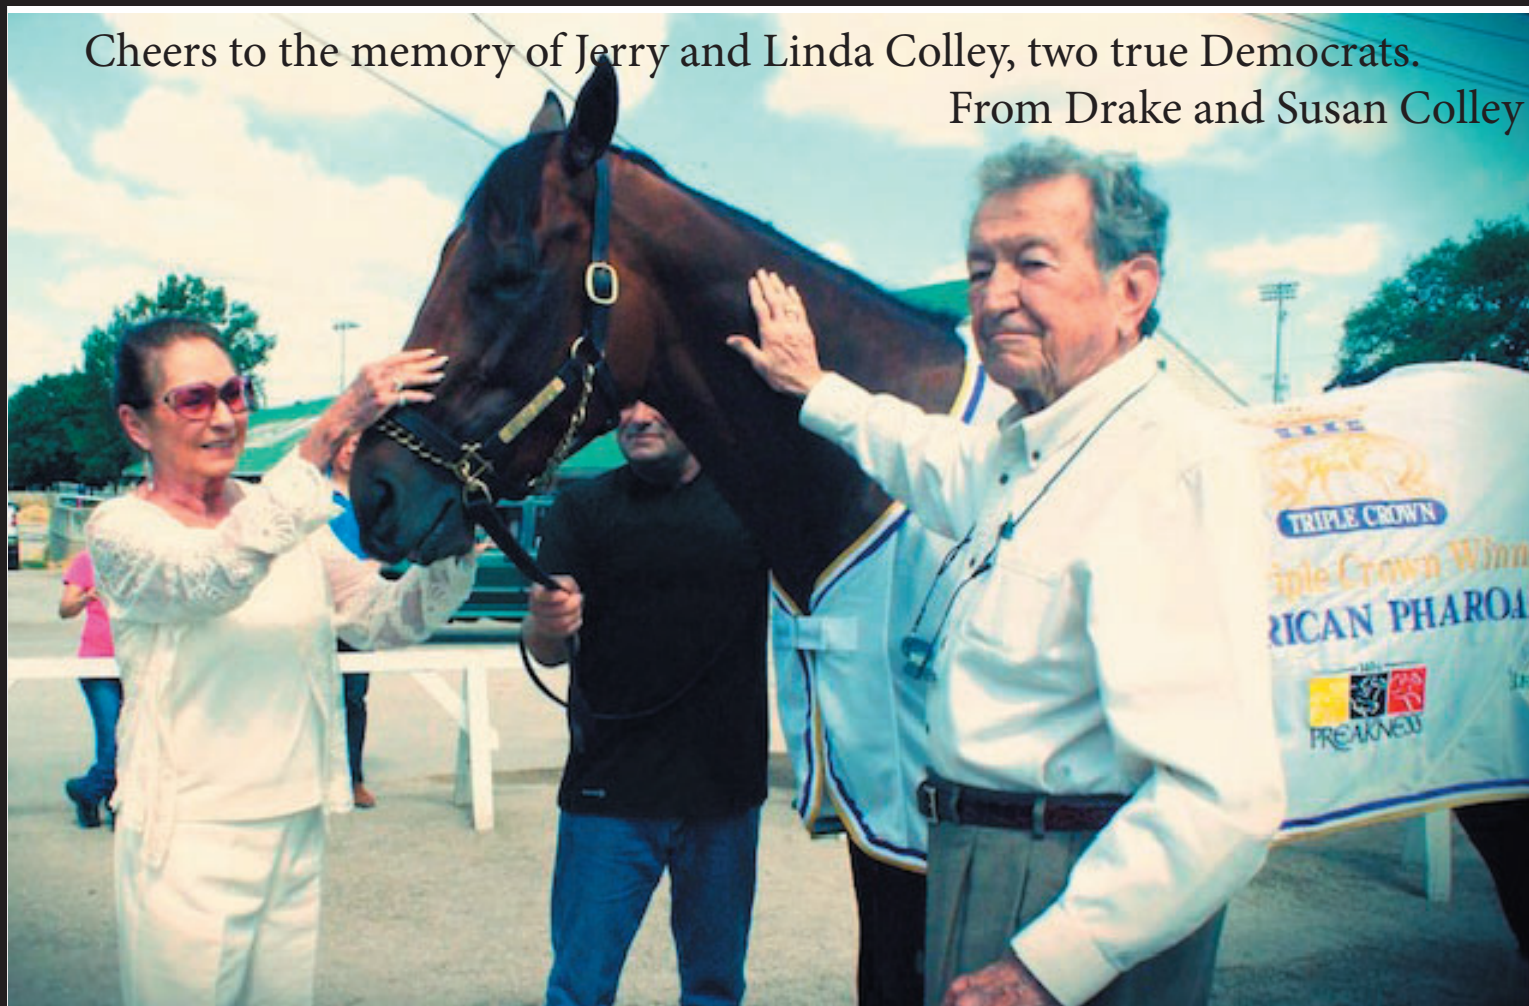

We are thankful for their contributions...

In Loving Memory of my Grandfathers

DR. JOHN LYTTLETON DALLAS
(1929-1992) (left)

(1927-2013) (right)

Bob Archer and John Dallas were very different men, but both had a profound impact on my life and character.

“PaBob” Archer grew up in a large blue-collar family and played on the champion 1947 Dobbys-Bennett High School varsity football team (that went 11-0, out-scoring their opponents 260-6). After serving in the Army during the Korean War, Bob worked his way up from counting paper rolls on the factory floor to become one of the senior accountants for the Kingsport Mead Paper Mill. He was a golfer, a Methodist, a Democrat, and had a generous and loving heart and a passion for fair play.

“Bubba” Dallas was the son of a Canadian-born Presbyterian minister who grew up in Knoxville. He was a Boy Scout, a Naval Flight Surgeon, and a University of Tennessee-educated physician who for many years worked in the Emergency Room at Holston Valley Hospital in Kingsport. John was an “old school” Republican who believed in discipline, charity, and the importance of education and human reason.

We believe that the people we elect greatly impact the political climate for working families. We support candidates who support and fight for working people. Local 1853 CAP committee members work to highlight candidates that support:

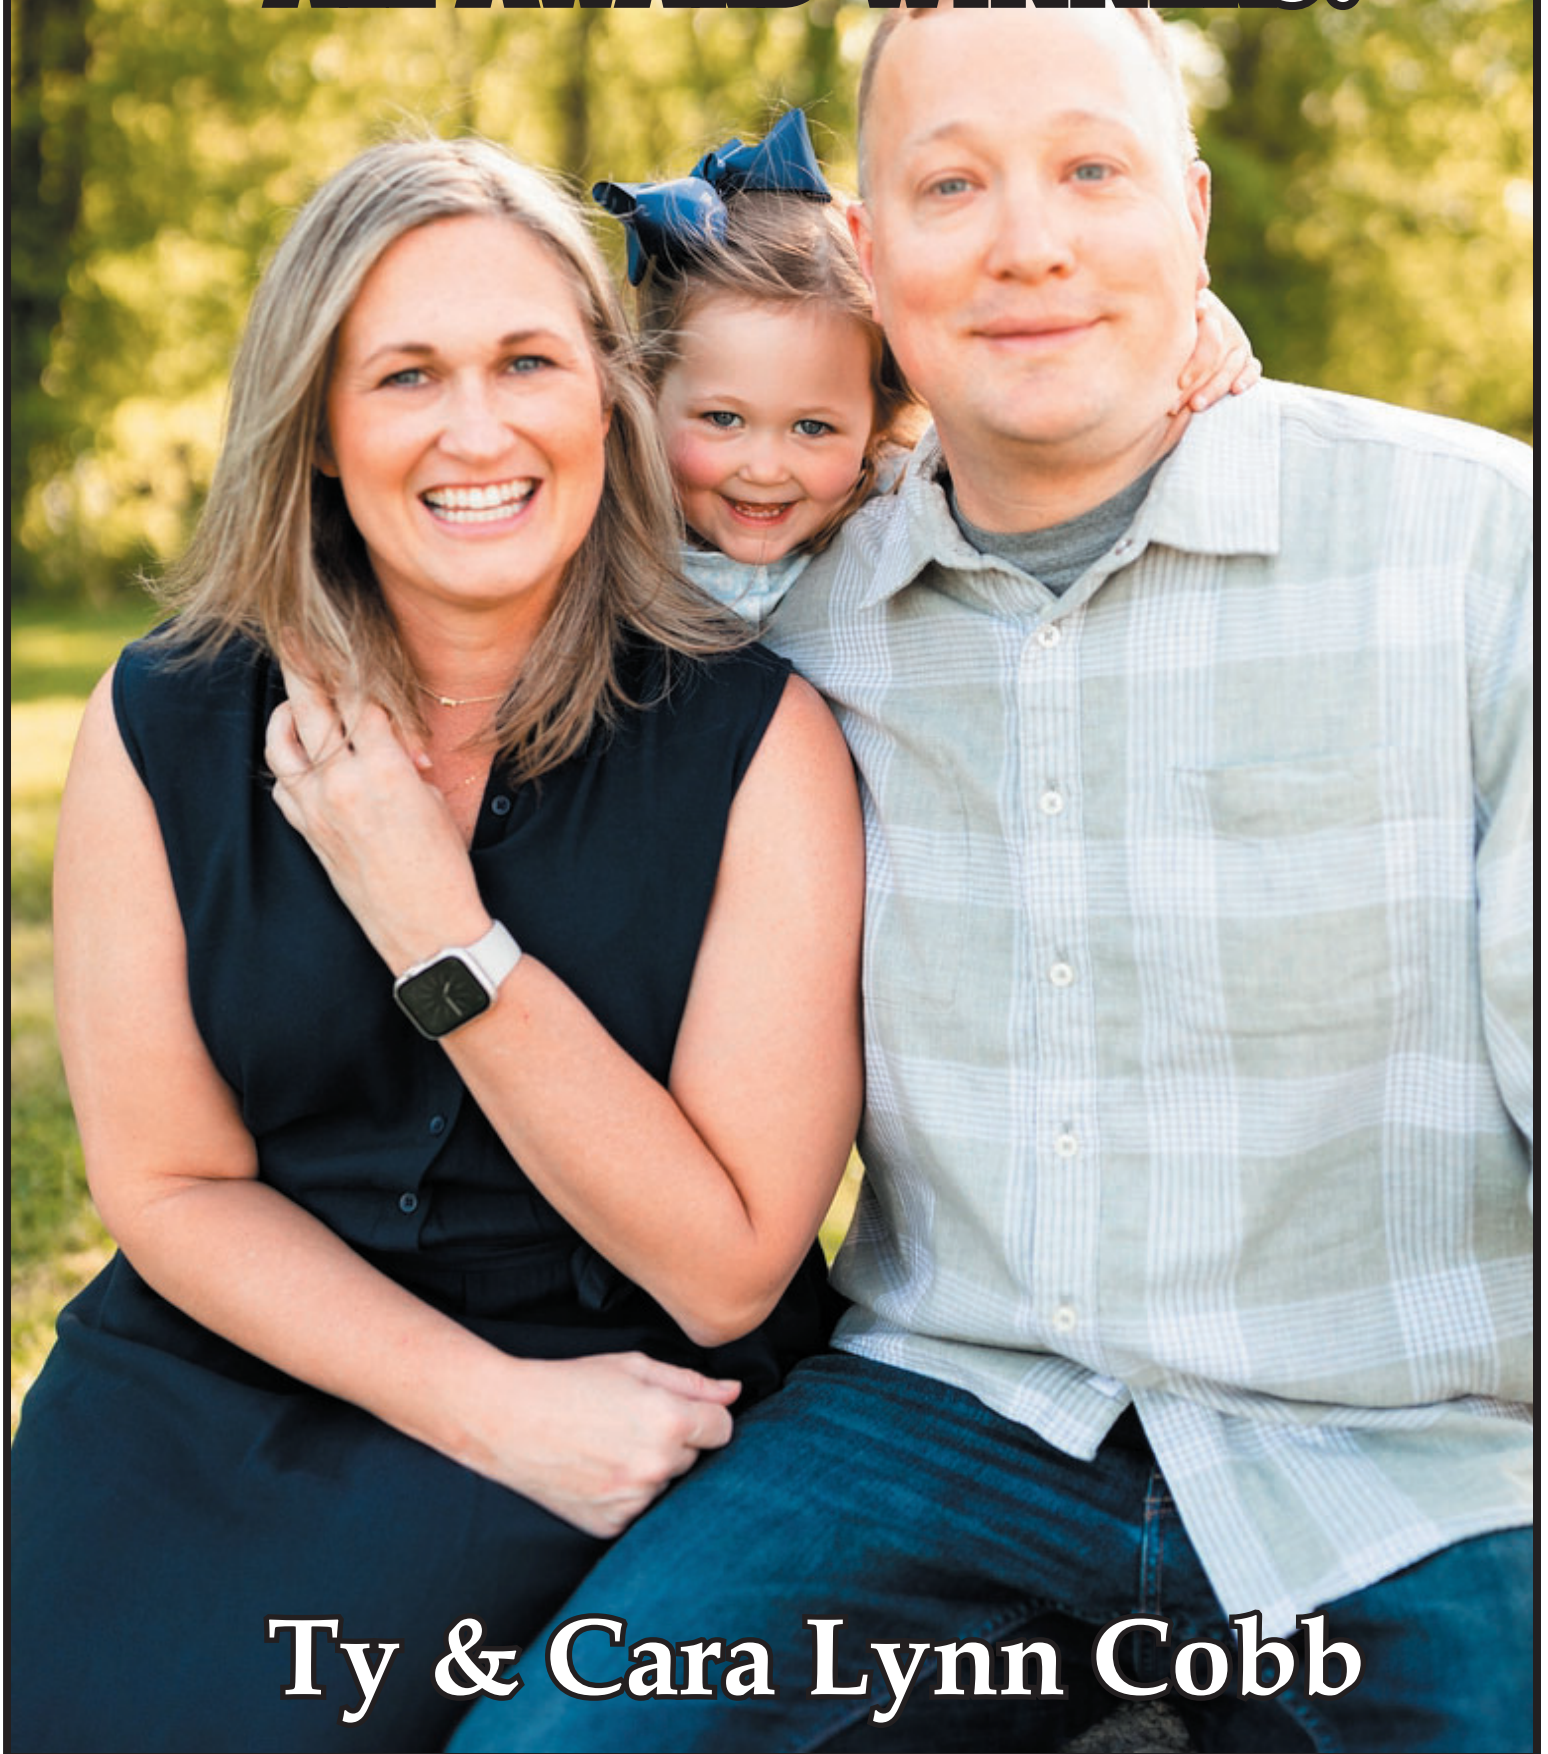

- Protecting worker rights
- Initiatives for working families
- Fair trade
- Health and Safety

The CAP committee assists in voter registration and get-out-the-vote drives, dollar drives, letter writing campaigns, and publicizing the issues and positions of public officials. We are Proud to Support the Maury County Democratic and the Heritage Dinner.
