FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 01/16/2026

Maury County Democrats to Hold Nominating Convention on February 28, 2026

Columbia, TN: The Maury County Democratic Party will hold a nominating convention (also called a caucus) on Saturday, February 28, to nominate candidates for county offices.

The MCDP will hold its convention at the Ledbetter Auditorium, in the Frank G. Clement Building at Columbia State Community College (1665 Hampshire Pike, Columbia). Doors will open at noon. Participants must be in line by 1 p.m. to be eligible to vote for nominees.

All bona fide Democrats registered to vote in Maury County before February 1 are eligible to take part. Participants do not have to pay any fees or dues to be eligible to vote.

Aspiring candidates must declare their intention to seek the Democratic nomination, in writing, no later than February 22. The candidate declaration deadline will allow the Democratic Party to vet aspiring candidates.

A candidate for county office who wins the Democratic Party nomination at the nominating convention will not need to pull a petition, as Independent candidates would. However, each candidate must meet all other legal requirements to seek office. Democrats interested in running for state or federal offices must still pull a petition to secure a spot on the August 2026 primary ballot.

The rules of the convention, as well as a link to the candidate declaration form, are posted on the Maury County Democratic Party website, <https://maurydems.org>.

About the Maury County Democratic Party: The Maury County Democratic Party is the local county affiliate of the Tennessee Democratic Party and represents the interests of tens of thousands of Democratic leaning voters in the county.
